

Biography for ANN SULLIVAN

Ms. Sullivan is the President of Madison Services Group, Inc. a woman-owned company which provides government relations services to corporate and non-profit clients. She brings many years of government relations experience in the United States Senate and the House of Representatives, serving in key advisory roles. Ms. Sullivan works with the United States Congress as well as the United States government agencies to bring her clients' issues national attention. Her expertise includes government procurement, health care and tax issues affecting women and minority businesses. She currently represents the largest national association of women business owners and women in business.

In the corporate sector, Ms. Sullivan represented the Fortune 500 natural gas pipelines for the leading natural gas pipeline association in the United States and was at the forefront of government deregulation of the energy industry. As Vice President in a government relations firm, her expertise included environmental issues such as air emissions, water purification and alternative fuel vehicles and energy policy.

Ms. Sullivan possesses six years of experience in the information technology field as the owner of a technical placement services firm serving the Washington and Baltimore metropolitan areas. Ms. Sullivan has lectured and conducted career transition training in the technology arena for both the public and private sector.